

FCT

BRIEF HISTORY

The Federal Capital Territory (FCT), which has Abuja as capital, is located almost at the geographical centre of Nigeria. Abuja is also the federal capital of Nigeria, having been moved from Lagos on December, 12 1991. The FCT lies within latitudes 8 23' and 9 15' N and longitudes 6 35'E. It is bounded on the west by Niger State, on the north by Niger and Kogi states, on the east by Nasarawa State and on south by Niger, Kogi and Nasarawa states.

The FCT has six (6) Area Councils namely Abaji, Bwari, Gwagwalada, Kuje, Kwali, and Abuja Municipal, with a population of 1,405,201 in the 2006 census. The territory is home to the Embassies of most countries that maintain diplomatic ties with Nigeria. It is also the headquarters of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and its Military Arm, ECOMOG. It also serves as a Regional Headquarters of the Organisation of Oil Producing and Exporting Countries (OPEC)
