

ANAMBRA STATE GOVERNORSHIP

ELECTION 2021

BRIEF

NIGERIA CIVIL SOCIETY
SITUATIONROOM

INTRODUCTION

- » The Anambra State Governorship election is scheduled to take place on Saturday, 6th November 2021.
- » Anambra is a State in South East Nigeria, which was carved out of the former East Central State in 1976.
- » The State is comprised of 21 Local Government Areas, 3 Senatorial districts and 11 Federal Constituencies. It is bounded by Kogi to the north, Enugu to the east, Abia to the south east, Imo and Rivers to the south, and Delta and Edo states on the west.
- » It has an area size of 4,844 sq. km and a population of 4,177,828 people (Population Census 2006, National Population Commission), and projected to be 5,527,809 in 2016 by the National Bureau of Statistics.
- » Indigenes of the State commonly speak dialects of the Igbo language and English.
- » The State capital is Awka. Some of the major towns in the State include Onitsha, Nnewi and Ogbunike, Ogidi, Uli, among others.
- » The State is a commercial hub with trading activities across many markets, some of which include the Onitsha main market, Ochanja market, Ogidi building materials market and the Awka main market.
- » Anambra State is also home to several tourist attractions such as collections of bronze artefacts in Igbo-Ukwu, Agulu Lake, Ogbunike Cave, among others.
- » Upon Nigeria's return to democratic rule in 1999, Chinwoke Mbadinuju became the first civilian Governor of Anambra State on the platform of the People's Democratic Party (PDP).

PRESENT DAY GOVERNMENT OF ANAMBRA STATE

The current Governor of Anambra State, Willie Obiano who hails from Aguleri in Anambra North Local Government Area of the State was elected on the platform of the All Progressives Grand Alliance (APGA) and sworn into office for his first tenure on 17th March 2014. He was re-elected as Governor for a second term during the last governorship election in the State on 18th November 2017.

The Deputy Governor of the State is Nkem Okeke, who formerly served as Commissioner for Economic Planning and again as Commissioner for Works and Transport under the administration of one of the State's former governors, Peter Obi.

ABOUT SITUATION ROOM

The Nigeria Civil Society Situation Room provides a coordinating platform for civil society engagement on governance issues. It is also a platform for information sharing among civil society groups working on elections and topical national issues. It intervenes in the electoral process by promoting collaboration, proactive advocacy and rapid response to crisis in the electoral process. The Situation Room provides a forum of advance planning, scenario building, evidence based analysis, constructive engagement with various stakeholders in the electoral process and observation of elections. PLAC hosts the secretariat of the Situation Room and is a member of its steering committee.
